

CASSIE SULLIVAN

FAMILIES

A GENTLE SOUL. A LOVER. A LIFE DOCUMENTER.

I'm an observer of moments and a feeler of emotions. I love to document how things are, your love, your home, the smallest change in your facial expressions. I love mood and warmth and intention. I think it's important to truly feel and notice all those things in order to best tell your story.

I find peace in forests, calm by the ocean and inspiration in the mountains. One of my favourite things to do is sit with friends over coffee or wine and chat about all things life.

I find life fascinating; being honest, vulnerable, joyful, open and interested in people really helps me make the most of it. I've been told I have a sense of quiet calm and a depth that's easy to get lost in.

I've spoken at creative retreats across Australia and New Zealand. It inspires and terrifies me in equal measures. I've photographed people in the most perfect rolling hills in Tasmania to the most isolated deserts in Saudi Arabia but it's the people, the people always shine the brightest.

I have ambitions in life to create an awesome co-working space with other creatives, to write a book, to have a host of spaces I can share on Airbnb, to have a floor to ceiling bookshelf, but my everyday is centred around being a great human and caring for others. I love living in my island home, Hobart, Tasmania, I travel frequently between Tasmania and Victoria and am always happy to travel further afield.

I feel incredibly honoured that you have contacted me to shoot a portrait session for you. If you've seen my work you probably notice that I focus on people and story. My approach is gentle and relaxed but under that surface I work hard to capture all the elements of your story. I'm humbled you've reached out, thank you and I hope to hear from you soon.

FAMILIES, SWEET FAMILIES

Family, hey? What a wonderful and magical place to belong.

Capturing emotions and defining your love is what I do best. I live in one of the most beautiful places this earth has to offer so let's go exploring in the natural bush, beach or mountains we have here in Tasmania. Putting personality and place together in images to tell your story makes my heart happy.

I find kids like me best when I don't tell them what to do but am genuinely interested in them as a human. I never ask anyone to smile, because real emotions make the best images. You will see from my work that I capture it all, happiness, freedom, cranky scowls, tears, all of the feels. I love real and I want to document you.

I shoot portraits and weddings all around Australia and the world, but it's never about the place, it's about the souls I'm photographing. I do this to connect with people, to tell your story.

I take commissions on a first- come, first-served basis. A 25% retainer/deposit and a signed contract are required to reserve your day. The remaining balance is due 14 days prior to the session. Below you will find the different collections I offer, to these you can add items, but not remove any.

If I will be traveling more than an hour outside of either Hobart to your session, I charge a travel fee.

Let's capture some beautiful memories together.

COLLECTIONS

I am always happy to guide you through the process of selecting the collection that best suit you. There are also extras you are free to add on at any stage of the booking process, allowing you to customise a collection especially for you and your family.

Each collection receives a selection of images that have been personally edited, an online gallery that is easy to share with family and friends, as well as an online slideshow.

GUIDE

FINE ART PRINTS

Prints, magical prints, start at $8 for fine art quality.

I love all this tangible and I am a huge advocate for printing out your images. Your online gallery is where you and your family and friends can order prints and wall art.

FINE ART ALBUMS

These books are...beautiful.

Let me assure you, this is how you want this moment in time with your family to be held and remembered. There's a reason why stories have been told in books for so long, don't let your memories end up in a folder on some hard drive somewhere.

Each album is 10" x 10", custom designed, hand bound, flush mounted and printed on fine art matte paper using archival inks. Covers can be cloth or leather and come in a myriad of colours. A parent album is a replica of your own album but a little smaller.

It's like holding a beautiful book about love, featuring your story.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHAT TIME ARE YOUR SESSIONS SCHEDULED?

It's all about light, it's best to start 2 hours before sunset so it changes throughout the year. In summer that can be tricky depending on the age of your children as it sets so late. Let's chat and see what works best.

HOW DOES PAYMENT WORK?

Upon signing the Family Portrait Contract, you are required to pay the booking deposit/retainer. Any extra travel costs will be added to your invoice.

BOOKINGS?

I work on a first-come, first-served basis and I generally have many people interested in the same dates. The ONLY way to secure a date is to pay a deposit and sign a contract. As soon as you're ready to book, just let me know and I'll send you a link to your own online portal.

HOW DO WE GET OUR IMAGES?

Your images will be delivered in high resolution on a USB drive. You are also able to download your images direct from your online gallery. This makes sharing your images with family and friends even easier.

WHEN DO WE RECEIVE OUR IMAGES?

Usually it will take around 6-8 weeks before you see your session slideshow. After that you will receive your online gallery, I will then send you your USB drive. If you have an album package, that process starts as soon as your images are edited. Please note that I travel frequently, so sometimes delivery will be delayed a week or two. I want to make sure I deliver a product I believe in and not a rush job.

WE HAVE ALREADY SIGNED OUR CONTRACT, CAN WE STILL ADD EXTRAS?

Of course! Many families find they may want to add some additional hours to capture those special moments or decide they would love a Fine Art Album to hold their memories. You are free to add on any of the extras, anytime.
